CELEBRATING GOOD SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Overall whole school attendance this week: 94.77%

Well done to class 2E for achieving the highest attendance this week.

Golf Experience Day

This week, our pupils in Reception through to Year 4 took part in a Primary Golf Experience Day delivered by PGA golfer Stu Warren. The children had a blast learning some of the basic skills needed to be a professional golfer. Some of the children even managed a hole in one!

School Council Competition Time

The School Council are running a competition in the lead up to the Easter break. Children can guess the number of mini eggs in a jar. It will be 20p a go - School Council will be running this on the playground at play and lunchtimes during the last week of term.

Easter Bake Off

Hannah C, Molly W and Olivia L had a very productive weekend and raised £127 for Comic Relief. A very well done to them.

Easter Bonnet Competition

There will be 5 categories for the Easter Bonnet Competition.

Nursery

Reception

KS1 – Years 1 and 2

Lower KS2 – Years 3 and 4

Upper KS2 – Years 5 and 6

Entries to be taken straight to the main hall on Friday 4th April.

Stars of the Week

Nursery	An all round superstar, Finnley is being celebrated this week for his excellent listening skills and contribution during whole class learning. He has demonstrated extreme kindness when helping his peers and also toward his sister, sharing his hard earned Nursery stickers with her at home!
Rec 1	This week Raine has done some amazing writing and segmented and written all the sounds she needed in her words. Well done Raine, keep up the good work.
Rec 2	Reception 2 are celebrating George L. He has made great progress with his reading and always tries his best. We are SO proud of you, for all your effort and perseverance.
1M	Lily S for being a super star this week! Lily has tried really hard to write interesting sentences in her independent writing and has been concentrating and listening excellently on the carpet. Well done.
1P	1P would like to celebrate Eleanor H for her brilliant writing this week. She has worked super hard at making her handwriting clear and neat and ensuring her curly caterpillars are formed correctly. Well done Eleanor.
2E	We would like to celebrate Elvie for her hard work and effort to progress in all areas of the classroom, and particularly for her football skills in PE this week.
2S	2S star of the week is Ava for having such a positive attitude to all of her learning this week. Ava has been motivated to work independently and has shown amazing participation in group discussions.
3D	Blake M for having a super attitude to his learning and applying himself in every subject. He has tried really hard to explain his answers and show his calculations but he has also been very diligent and trying hard to independently purple pen his work. He also displayed great sportsmanship during our golf experience this week. He was giving pointers and helping the others in his group to improve.
3E	Tadhg has had a great week. He has worked really hard to learn his lines for our show and is putting more and more into his performance every rehearsal. He also had an incredible golf session where he was the only person to score a hole in one! Well done Tadhg!
4W	Eva P for producing really thoughtful, independent work - a story with carefully constructed sentences designed to entertain the reader, art that is beautifully drawn and maths where she always does more than is asked.
4B	Fraser G for an outstanding re-telling of Beowulf.
5F	We are celebrating Monty H this week as he exemplifies all the core values in our school, he demonstrated wonderful team spirit in netball this week and is always a kind and caring member of our class.
5T	Laiton B for going above and beyond at every opportunity, working hard on his presentation and handwriting and demonstrating great pride in his work. He also scored 100% on his arithmetic test this week! Great work Laiton!
5W	Teddy B for his super progress in arithmetic and reading comprehension, we are incredibly proud of him. Well done Teddy, keep up the good work.
6H	Jude for really putting a lot of effort into his Wonder diary writing this week! As well as this, he threw himself fully into his role during a drama activity in PSHE - we were all captivated! Well done for a really successful week!
6Y	Blake H for going above and beyond on his History work recently and for thoughtful responses during class discussions.

Well done to the following children Daisy, Elodie and Millie from 3D for exceptional attention to detail during squash lessons and working well as a team to improve together.

Ship Event

The Ship Captains and First Lieutenants are running some Easter fun on the last day of term as well. There will be egg rolling on the playground at lunchtime. It will be 20p a go and there are Easter Eggs for the winners in each ship.

Hopefully you will have booked your appointment to see your child's class teacher on Tuesday 1st April. On arrival, please enter via the Blackwater entrance (the one near the Main Hall) for appointments with Mrs Waites (4W), Mrs Barnes (4B), Mr Elmer (5F), Miss Tokley (5T) and Mrs Wyatt (5W) please wait in the library and for all appointments with other teachers, including Nursery, please go to the small hall.

Your child's work will be available for you to view. Tea and coffee will be available.

We look forward to seeing you.

The Rapid Refill team would like to thank you for your custom and would welcome any donations of clean pump soap or washing up liquid bottles. They now have new stock, including healthy snacks.

I would like to say a huge well done to all the children for their commendable dedication and enthusiasm.

I would also like to say a big well done to Evie G and Isaac P who run the school stationery shop every week. They are absolute superstars and do a fab job.

There have been a number of cases of headlice reported in the last week.

Please check your child's hair!

All long hair should be tied up please.

Raine's lovely writing (Rec 1)
